Hello, everybody. Welcome back to daily Easy English expression, the bud guess this is number 990. And if you're listening live by the way, happy new year, it is 2021 Today is January 4. I tell you guys, I have been sick. It's been terrible. But I'm back as you can hear. Hopefully it sounds okay. My nose is just a little bit clogged up. But basically I'm 100%. So finally, I feel excited about the New Year 2021 I hope you are too. And I guess if you're listening live, we had a sale the New Year's sale, and I've extended it by two days. Yeah, we've extended the sale by two days. So if you're interested in the sale, you can go to the website www let's master English calm and go to the sign up page. And you'll see the sale links. You'll see them there. And of course, I want you to try the free lessons first before you join. So just send me an email. And I'll give you the free lessons. www let's master English comm slash free sign up for the newsletter and get that and alright. Today's expression is really good. It's about my wife. She is high maintenance. Hmm, no, it's not true. My wife is not a kind of I think any woman and not necessarily many women are high maintenance. And I'm sure there are many guys out there that are high maintenance too. Maybe I am I don't know. What is it to be high maintenance. So she is hi hai GH maintenance, m a i n t e n a n c e lots of Ns right? High maintenance. Somebody who is high maintenance. You need to do a lot to make them happy. Maybe you always need to buy them a present. Talking about a woman, maybe you always need to bring her roses. Maybe you need to text her every 10 minutes. Maybe you have to face time or 10 times a day. Maybe you have to give her your email password. Yeah, this is the idea of high maintenance in order to keep her and again it can go for guys too. In order to keep him happy. You need to do a lot. You need to keep doing a lot. You need to maintain a lot of things for the person high maintenance. You know, I mean, the idea of a high maintenance person is never good, right? You don't want a high maintenance person in your life. Do you have a high maintenance person in your life? I'm thinking about my wife right now. Is she high maintenance? Well actually check out the dialogue. What are you doing making my girlfriend's sandwich cutting the crust? Peeling the tomato organic ketchup cut into four pieces. She likes it this way. Sounds pretty high maintenance. I yah yah yah, yah, yah, yah, so this guy is making his girlfriend a sandwich. Okay, so I don't know what kind of sandwich it is. But listen, cutting the crust. So if you make a sandwich, you have to have bread. Right? But on the outside of the bread, the bread is white, right? But the outside of the bread is brown. Some people don't like that brown part and we call the brown part. The crust. See our ust. So this guy is cutting off the crust because his girlfriend doesn't like the crust.

And then if you have like a tomato, right, a slice of tomato, well, tomatoes, like oranges have a skin. Now, I don't know anybody who eats the skin of an orange, right, we always peel the orange. Nobody eats the orange peel. Nobody eats the skin of the orange. But tomatoes also have a skin. It's very thin. But I think most of us eat the skin of the tomato, but not this guy's girlfriend. He has to peel the skin off the tomato. And there's ketchup on the sandwich, but not just any ketchup. It's organic, ketchup expensive. And usually if you give me a sandwich, you don't need to cut it. If you cut the sandwich just cut it once. Cut the sandwich into two pieces. But this guy has to cut the sandwich into four pieces. Because that's the way she likes it. Wow. She is very picky. She sounds pretty high maintenance to me. Uh huh. Now, to be honest, my wife is not like this. This is actually me. When it comes to food. I like my food prepared. Very specifically, it needs to be this way. That way. You know, if you give me a bowl of food, you have to give me a spoon. If you give me a plate of food, you have to give me a fork. So if you're giving me a bowl of food, and then you give me a fork, you're wrong. If you give me a plate of food and give me a spoon, you're wrong. Okay, and my wife has learned this. So I guess you could say, Coach Shane is high maintenance. It's terrible. I need to relax. Yeah, I'm sorry, honey. Alright guys, check out the dialogue two more times. Join me in class, we have a sale. Again, if you're listening live, I'll extend the sale by two days until Wednesday. So we have a sale. Please join us and I'll see you in class. Otherwise, I'll see in the next podcast together. Let's master English.
